1. A number of anti-Communist partisan detachments have been organized in Rumania under the leadership of General Dragalina. These units are active in Bukovina, in Transylvania, and in the Babadag forest near Tulcea. Because of the unsettled conditions, one requires a special permit to travel by rail or car from Constanta to Cobadin-Negru-Voda on the Bulgarian border or from Oradea to Satu-Mare or from Timisoara to Arad.
2. Mircea Cancicov, the former Rumanian Minister of Finance who was sentenced to 15 years' imprisonment for espionage activity on behalf of United States is now being held in Ajud prison. His former secretary, Gheorghiu (elder son of N. Gheorghiu from Constanta), who received 20 years, is being held in the Vacaresti sanatorium, which has apparently been converted into a prison. Conrad Grupper, former director of the firm of Contexport in Galati and later a member of the M. Rothmann firm, Oleaginoasa in Bucharest, is also being held at Vacaresti.
